

City of Denton Police Department
Citizen Police Academy Alumni Association Contribution Form

The Denton Citizen Police Academy Alumni Association (CPAAA) is a 501c3 non-profit organization founded in 1995 for graduates of the Citizen Police Academy. The mission of the CPAAA is to support the Denton Police Department through projects and programs benefitting the men and women of the police department as well as the community and its citizens. The Alumni Association is funded through membership dues, donations and fund raising projects.

The Alumni Association Volunteers:

- Staff fundraising booths at community events
- Act as ambassadors for the Denton Police Department
- Work with the Denton Police Department to provide items not budgeted to make their job more productive
- Provide food and door prizes to officers and staff on Annual Police Appreciation Day in December

If you have questions or want more information about ways to support the Denton Police Department, please contact the CPAAA at dentonCPAAAinfo@gmail.com or visit our website at www.dentoncpaaa.org.

You can mail your contribution with this form to:
