Article 1: Organization

1.1 Mission Statement

The mission of the not-for-profit Denton Citizen Police Academy Alumni Association, hereafter referred to as "DCPAAA" or "association" is to support the City of Denton Police Department through projects and programs benefitting the men and women of the police department as well as the community and its citizens. The Executive Board will manage the affairs of the DCPAAA.

1.2 501(c)(3) Activities as defined by the IRS

The DCPAAA is organized exclusively for charitable activities within the meaning of Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code. No part of the net earnings of this organization will benefit or be distributed to its members, trustees, officers, or other private persons, except that this organization will be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered and to make payments and distribution in furtherance of these purposes.

No part of the activities of the DCPAAA will be carrying on of propaganda or otherwise attempting to influence legislation. The DCPAAA will not participate in or intervene in (including the publishing or distribution of statements) any political campaign on behalf of or in opposition to any candidate for public office.

The DCPAAA will not carry on any other activities not permitted to be carried on (a) by an organization exempt from Federal income tax under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or corresponding section of any future Federal tax code or (b) by an organization, contributions to which are deductible under Section 170 (c)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code, or corresponding section of any future Federal tax code.

1.3 Donations and Gifts

A member in good standing may accept, on behalf of this association, any monetary or in kind donation for the organization with approval of the Executive Board. The association, or any member on behalf of this association, may not accept personal gifts of any kind.

1.4 Permanent Address

The permanent address of the DCPAAA is P.O. Box 1713, Denton, TX 76202 located in the City of Denton Main Post Office at 101 E. McKinney Street in the County of Denton, State of Texas. Any changes to this address must be approved by the Executive Board.

1.5 Annual Year

The annual year of this association will begin on the first day of January and end on the last day of December in the same year.

1.6 Books and Records

This association will keep correct and complete books and records of financial accounts, minutes of all proceedings and a listing of members in good standing. All books and records of this association may be inspected by regular members upon written request to the President and are to be produced within seven days.

Denton Citizen Police Academy Alumni Association Bylaws

1.7 Storage Unit

The DCPAAA will retain a storage unit for event/fundraising items including tables, table cloths, tents, signage, decorations, paper plates, napkins, plasticware, cups, plaques, shirts, caps, various tools, hardware and other supplies.

Article 2: Membership

2.1 Eligibility

Members will be graduates of the Denton Citizen Police Academy and in good standing with the City of Denton Police Department. Applicants will not be discriminated against regarding age, sex, creed, religion, or race. They will submit the proper documentation required by the City of Denton Police Department upon request. Members are encouraged to attend regular meetings and to volunteer for as many activities as possible.

2.2 Member Code of Conduct

No member will promote or represent himself/herself on behalf of the Denton Citizen Police Academy Alumni Association or the City of Denton Police Department for personal, political or financial gain.

No member will conduct himself/herself in a manner which would bring discredit to himself/herself, the Denton Citizen Police Academy Alumni Association or the City of Denton Police Department while representing the Denton Citizen Police Academy Alumni Association or in any situation where he/she can be identified as a member of the Denton Citizen Police Academy Alumni Association.

Members will:

- Be polite and considerate
- Respect each person
- Work as a team
- Listen courteously
- Share responsibilities
- Critique ideas only, not people
- Keep an open mind
- Avoid conflicts of interest

Order and decorum will be maintained at all meetings and events. The Sergeant at Arms (or designee) may expel persons from meetings and events because of disruptive behavior. The member's conduct will be reviewed by the Executive Board. Courses of action may include, but are not limited to, a verbal warning by the President, written warning by the President and/or Executive Board, enforcement of Article 2.4 Termination of Membership.

Any complaints against members will be handled in a civil manner. Complaints must be submitted in writing to the Secretary of the association. The Executive Board will investigate and determine if a violation has occurred. Courses of action may include, but are not limited to, a verbal warning by the President, written warning by the President and/or Executive Board, enforcement of Article 2.4 Termination of Membership.

2.3 Annual Dues

Current annual dues are $20.00 per person per year and will only be used to further the purpose of the DCPAAA. Dues must be paid within the first sixty days (the end of February) of each year to remain a member in good standing. Members who have not paid dues will not receive email notifications and will not have voting privileges until dues are paid and current. Dues will not be prorated.

If the Executive Board determines a change in the amount of dues is necessary, a proposal will be presented at a membership meeting. Two-thirds of members in good standing present at the meeting will be required for approval.

Initial dues will be waived for new CPA Graduates as follows: Graduates of the Spring CPA class will receive membership in the CPAAA for the balance of the year in which they graduate. Graduates of the Fall CPA class will receive membership in the CPAAA for the full calendar year after they graduate.

2.4 Termination of Membership

Violation of any part of the code of conduct is cause for review by the Executive Board. After an appropriate hearing, discussion and two-thirds affirmative vote, the Executive Board may terminate a member for just cause.

Upon termination of membership, any security badges, pass keys or property belonging to the DCPAAA must be turned over immediately.

2.5 Appeals

Any former member may appeal their revoked membership to the general membership by submitting a request to the Secretary of the association. Such appeals will be presented to the members at the next general membership meeting. After discussion before a quorum of members in good standing, the matter will be voted on by written ballot.

Any current member may appeal a decision by the Executive Board before the general membership by submitting a request to the Secretary of the association. Such appeals will be presented to the members at the next general membership meeting. After discussion before a quorum of members in good standing, the matter will be voted on by written ballot.

2.6 Resignation

A member may resign by submitting a written resignation to the Secretary of the association. Upon resignation of membership, any security badges, pass keys or property belonging to the DCPAAA must be turned over immediately.

2.7 Reinstatement

To be reinstated, a former member (from either termination or resignation) must submit a signed, written request to the Secretary of the association. An emailed request is acceptable, as long as the "from" address matches the email in the CPAAA "Track it Forward" database. The email will be considered "signed" as it is from an established secure account of the person requesting reinstatement. Approval by a majority vote of the Executive Board is required for reinstatement.

2.8 Honorary Membership

The Executive Board may offer Honorary Membership to an individual or entity in recognition of significant contributions to the CPAAA. Any member in good standing may propose a candidate for honorary membership. Honorary membership will be bestowed on an annual basis. Honorary Members will not be entitled to vote on any matter nor hold elective office. Honorary Members are exempt from the requirement to pay annual dues while they retain honorary membership status.

Article 3: Meetings

3.1 Procedure

Association meetings will be governed in accordance with these bylaws and Robert's Rules of Order. If there is a conflict, these bylaws will take precedence.

3.2 General Membership Meetings

General meetings will normally be held on the second Tuesday of each month at 7pm at the Denton Public Safety Training Center, unless otherwise determined. It is permissible to hold electronic meetings when directed by the President. All members will be notified of any change in meeting time, location, or format at least 3 days in advance.

3.3 Executive Board Meetings

Executive Board meetings will normally be held on the Thursday prior to the Tuesday general meeting each month at 7pm at the Denton Public Safety Training Center, unless otherwise determined. It is permissible to hold electronic meetings when directed by the President. All Executive Board members will be notified of any change in meeting time, location, or format at least 3 days in advance. The January Executive Board meeting will be a joint meeting of outgoing and incoming Executive Board members.

3.4 Special Meetings

The President or the Secretary of the association may call a special meeting of the membership or of the Executive Board. No special meeting can be held unless all members are notified at least forty-eight hours in advance.

3.5 Quorum

A minimum of 15% of the members in good standing constitutes a quorum and is necessary to conduct the business of this association when a vote is required. A quorum of the Executive Board will consist of at least five members.

3.6 Voting

Each member in good standing is entitled to one vote on each matter submitted to a vote of the membership. Each member of the Executive Board is entitled to one vote on each matter brought before the Executive Board. All matters require a simple majority vote, unless otherwise noted in these bylaws.

3.7 Proposals

All proposals to commit this association on any matter will be considered first by the Executive Board. Members should submit proposals to the Secretary of the association.

Denton Citizen Police Academy Alumni Association Bylaws

Any proposal suggested at a general meeting will be referred to the Executive Board for review and action as appropriate.

Any purchase proposals submitted to this association from the City of Denton Police Department must be in writing and approved by the Chief of Police, or his appointee. The Executive Board must first approve any purchase before presenting the request to the general membership for a vote to approve or disapprove the expenditure.

Article 4: Executive Board

4.1 Purpose

The Executive Board will manage the affairs of the Denton Citizen Police Academy Alumni Association. No compensation of any sort will be paid to or accepted by any member of the Executive Board for any reason.

4.2 Executive Board Member Code of Conduct

Executive Board members must abide by the Member Code of Conduct listed in Article 2.2.

In addition, Executive Board members:

- Must commit to ethical, professional and lawful conduct
- Must exercise proper use of authority and appropriate behavior
- Must exercise common sense and good judgment
- Must have no self or business promotion in their position as board members
- Must not use their position to obtain employment for themselves, family or associates
- Must treat issues of a sensitive nature discreetly and confidentially
- Must withdraw from discussions and votes on issues where there is a conflict of interest

The Executive Board will investigate complaints against its own members and determine if a violation of the Code of Conduct has occurred. Courses of action are the same as those listed in Article 2.2. Member Code of Conduct. In addition, the Board has the authority to remove a Board Member by majority vote.

4.3 Officers and Directors

The Executive Board will consist of eight elected members: Four officers and four Directors.

Officers

- President
- Vice President
- Secretary
- Treasurer

Directors

- Communication
- Events
- Membership
- Programs

Denton Citizen Police Academy Alumni Association Bylaws

Except in special circumstances directed by the President and approved by the Executive Board, no two immediate family members will be officers during the same year and no two offices may be held at the same time by the same person.

4.4 Terms

The term of office for the Executive Board members is two years. No officer may serve more than three consecutive terms in the same office unless the office is uncontested in a general election, at which time the Executive Board may approve additional terms.

Every year half (four) of the board positions will be up for election. This ensures continuity and uninterrupted management. The Nominating Committee will be in charge of elections. Elections will be held at the final membership meeting of the year unless there is a vote by the Board to delay up to 2 months into the following year. Newly elected board members will take office the month after elections are held.

Elections will be held in odd numbered years for:

- President
- Secretary
- Director of Programs
- Director of Communication

Elections will be held in even numbered years for:

- Vice President
- Treasurer
- Director of Membership
- Director of Events

A vacancy in an Executive Board position because of death, resignation, termination or otherwise, will be filled by a majority vote of the Executive Board for the remainder of the term.

4.5 Quorum

A quorum will consist of five or more members of the Executive Board.

4.6 Keys and Passwords

The two keys to the DCPAAA post office box will be stored in the Training Center front desk, and with the Director of Membership.

Password for CPAAA website, Track It Forward, and Google Administrator will be changed prior to January 1st each year as Board Members leave their offices, or upon any Board Member with password access departing prior to the end of their term.

4.7 Duties and Responsibilities

All Executive Board members

- Are accountable to the Executive Board and membership for their actions
- May sign contracts for the DCPAAA, with approval of the Executive Board
- Act as association representatives
- Must maintain documentation for each job function
